Informants

By communication dated 3/7/69, the Boston Division advised that informants familiar with gambling matters in the Boston area furnished no current information concerning SIDNEY A. BRODSOON.

[REDACTED] advised on 3/14/69 he had not seen SID BRODSOON of late but noted that BRODSOON was hanging out at Buddy's Steak Out, Juneau Village, Milwaukee. Informant advised it was his recollection that BRODSOON was still betting.

b7D

By communication dated January 16, 1969, the New Orleans Division advised as follows:

[REDACTED] has advised that during the past football season, SIDNEY BRODSOON, the Milwaukee gambler, had been very successful in wagering on football. Informant stated he did not know where BRODSOON was operating from but believed BRODSOON was still in the Milwaukee area. [REDACTED]

b6

For information, the New Orleans Office [REDACTED]

[REDACTED] who was allegedly working for the [REDACTED] operation. New Orleans, in reviewing the evidence seized during the raid to date, has not been able to tie the [REDACTED] operation to BRODSOON; however, this evidence is being exhibited to certain informants for further evaluation and if there are any known ties between the [REDACTED] operation and BRODSOON in Milwaukee, New Orleans will advise Milwaukee.

b6
b7C

[REDACTED] advised on 4/17/69 that SID BRODSOON was one of those individuals who attended the wake of "Sheriff" CEFALU on 4/14/69.

COVER PAGE

By communication dated 5/28/69, the Chicago Division advised that on 3/21/69 [] furnished information that the basketball line was received in Chicago from, among others, an individual in Milwaukee known as "Shoebox," which name he is allegedly to have received from a habit of carrying his gambling paraphernalia in a shoebox when he travelled. Chicago Office surmised that individual known as "Shoebox" is probably identical with SIDNEY A. BRODSO, aka "Shoebox," a well-known gambler in the Milwaukee area.

b7D

[] advised on 6/2/69 that he last saw SID BRODSO at "SHERIFF" CEFALU's funeral. ("SHERIFF" CEFALU was a well-known Milwaukee bookmaker.)

b7D

[] further stated that BRODSO had [] The Clock (well known hang out for Milwaukee gamblers) and as far as he knew BRODSO's main gambling operations were in connection with basketball. Informant described BRODSO as strictly a gambler and not as a bookmaker or a lay-off man. Informant further stated that to his knowledge BRODSO continues to operate his law office but it is purely a front and that BRODSO makes his money from his gambling winnings.

b7D

SIDNEY A. BRODSOON telephonically contacted Special Agent [] and stated he had been informed by several individuals that the FBI was looking for him, and he was desirous of knowing the nature of the inquiry. Agent [] informed Mr. BRODSOON that he was desirous of speaking with him (BRODSOON) privately in connection with an investigative matter within the purview of the jurisdiction of the FBI. In that regard, Agent [] informed Mr. BRODSOON, noting that he is an attorney, that before discussing any such matter, he wanted to be sure that Mr. BRODSOON was fully aware of certain constitutional rights. In that regard, Mr. BRODSOON stated that, of course, he was, noting his legal background, and that he was aware anything he did say could be used against him in a possible court proceeding, as well as being aware of other constitutional safeguards. He then again asked Agent [] what would be the nature of such an interview, and Agent [] informed Mr. BRODSOON that it would be as concerns gambling. At that point, Mr. BRODSOON stated he had had experience with law enforcement officials before and declined to be interviewed as concerns gambling matters or any other matters. The conversation was terminated at that point.

At St. Louis, Missouri

The records of the Commercial Credit Services Company, St. Louis, as reviewed by Investigative Clerk [redacted], December 4, 1969, reflect that VIRGINIA M. GOLDBERG, age 54, 1963, a widow residing 10316 Sennois as of January 9, 1969, previously resided at 2518 North Farwell, Milwaukee, Wisconsin. Her employment is reflected as St. Louis Art Association, Program Director, from December, 1968, to August, 1969. There is nothing unfavorable reflecting her credit rating, which is satisfactory.

b6
b7C

The records were checked by Investigative Clerk [redacted] on December 4, 1969, at the St. Louis Police Department, and no information was located identifiable with VIRGINIA GOLDBERG.

The indices of the St. Louis Office contain no information identifiable with VIRGINIA M. GOLDBERG.

At Milwaukee, Wisconsin

Efforts were made to contact SIDNEY A. BRODSOON at his residence and place of employment on January 7, 20, and February 5, and 18, 1970, with negative results.

SIDNEY BRODSOON lives in an over and under duplex apartment at 2420 East Stratford Court, Shorewood, Wisconsin (a suburb of Milwaukee). On March 9, 1970, an inquiry was made of an unidentified individual in the [redacted] apartment at that address, which is numbered [redacted] East Stratford Court, as concerns the whereabouts of BRODSOON, and this individual stated that to his knowledge, BRODSOON was away some place "back East."

b6
b7C

MI 166-128

On March 5, 1970, inquiry was made at BRODSON's office, 336 North 12th Street, Milwaukee, and [REDACTED] stated he was out of town, but she expected his return Monday, March 9, 1970.

On March 9, 1970, [REDACTED] was again contacted, and she stated that SIDNEY BRODSON was in Milwaukee, but she did not know when he would be in his office. She was furnished the names of Special Agents [REDACTED] and [REDACTED] with the request that when BRODSON did check with her for messages or come by his office, that she request he contact the Agents at the Milwaukee FBI Office.

Boston is well aware that SIDNEY A. BROESON has a reputation of being a high-stakes gambler in Milwaukee and has been investigated in conjunction with the Boston Office in Boston File 165-461, Milwaukee File 165-123. A review of that file, which is now in a closed status, revealed a telephone toll call check was made during July, 1969, which did not develop any information which could be utilized in prosecution under the ITWI Statutes.

Attempts were made by the Milwaukee Division to interview BROESON during March, 1970, at which time he indicated he did not desire to be interviewed regarding gambling matters.

In view of the above, no further action is being taken in this regard by Milwaukee.

Memorandum

TO : SAC (165-new)

DATE: 12/19/61

FROM : SA CLARK E. LOVRIEN

SUBJECT: ~~SIDNEY A. BRODSO~~
ITWI

BRODSO, who was formerly subject of MI file 94-253, resides at 2420 E. Stratford Ct., Shorewood, Wis., where he was interviewed recently in connection with another matter by SAs CLARK E. LOVRIEN and RICHARD C. THOMPSON.

At that time he described himself as a very "hostile citizen" for the reason that the Government claims that he owes " $\frac{1}{4}$ million dollars" in income taxes and penalties. He claims the interest in this itself runs to \$5,000 or \$6,000 per month and that it is completely beyond his power to pay now or at any time in the future. He has been attempting through his attorneys to negotiate a compromise settlement with IRS, but has now been told by his attorney that the Attorney General of the U. S. has let it be known that he will not permit compromises of tax debts owed by gamblers for gambling income. This, according to BRODSO, puts him in the position of being unable to seek and hold gainful employment for the simple reason that anything he earns would be taken by the Federal Government to apply upon his tax bill.

He claims, therefore, that he sits at home and lives from earnings. This seems incredible. BRODSO is an articulate man and in the past has been known as a very able handicapper. It is, therefore, believed that he continues to engage in some kind of gambling activity and that investigation along these lines should be conducted.

Re Milwaukee letter to Chicago dated 2/26/62.

Minneapolis Office indices were examined on 3/12/62 and reflected reference for SIDNEY A. BRODSOY (33-35A-35, page 84). An article appearing in the "Minneapolis Star" dated 3/24/51 reflects that SIDNEY A. BRODSOY, a Milwaukee, Wisconsin, betting figure, testified before the Senate Crime investigators.

The "St. Paul Sunday Pioneer Press" dated 3/25/51 reflected BRODSOY named two of his contacts as being MORRIS BRICKMAN, 1746 Hillcrest Avenue, St. Paul, Minnesota, and CARL E. ERSKIN of 500 Thomas Avenue South and who are in business together in the Wilmac Building, 719 Nicollet Avenue as the "Dealers Service Bureau." BRODSOY testified that BRICKMAN supplied him with information on college teams and betting odds. BRODSOY pictured ERSKIN as a chap who served as forecaster for the Gorham Press which was shown by an exhibit to be an information sheet published by Athletic Publications, Inc. This Athletic Publications, Inc., was located in the Gorham Building, 635 Second Avenue North, Minneapolis, Minnesota. BRODSOY said that this Gorham Press furnishes records of collegiate athletic teams as well as circulating betting odds and charges a fee of about $20 a week.

The "St. Paul Sunday Pioneer Press" on March 25, 1951, also reflected MORRIS BRICKMAN and CARL ERSKIN were unavailable for comment as BRICKMAN was vacationing in Miami Beach and not expected home until April 15 and ERSKIN was reported to be out of the city. This article also indicated that the BRICKMAN-ERSKIN activities and those of the Gorham Press have been investigated at length in the past by the St. Paul and Minneapolis Police Departments and found to be within the law. This article also revealed that none of the officers of Athletic Publications, Inc., could be located; that telephones remained unanswered at the homes

Re Miami letter to Milwaukee, 4/23/64 entitled
"FRANK LANG "Lefty" ROSENTHAL, aka, ITWI," Miami file 165-28.

S. BRODSOON mentioned in Miami letter is undoubtedly identical with SIDNEY BRODSOON, Milwaukee, Wisconsin who has previously been reported by the Milwaukee Office as having office space at 836 North 12 Street, Telephone Broadway 2-4624, and residence at 2420 East Stratford Court, Telephone EDgewood 2-3256.

BRODSOON is known as an experienced gambler, is regarded by other gamblers as being extremely intelligent and capable of making his own odds. As a matter of fact, in the past it has been reported that BRODSOON has been paid by other gamblers and bookies to set or establish their odds.

BRODSOON is acquainted with a JOHN MORN of Milwaukee, Wisconsin who is a reported gambler and an occasional bookie who is also said to "beard" for BRODSOON in connection with BRODSOON's betting activities. [redacted] of Milwaukee is also a known gambler but primarily in the field of cards and dice and travels to different cities with that purpose as a possibility. Both of these individuals, according to various informants of the Milwaukee Office, have been reported to have been in Miami area on visits during the same time that BRODSOON was supposed to have been in the Miami area.

FEDERAL BUREAU OF INVESTIGATION

Date May 13, 1968

JOHN J. MOHN, JR., 11118 West Meisbach, Wauwatosa, Wisconsin, furnished the following information:

He married [redacted] on September 27, 1967, at Waukegan, Illinois. They were married in Waukegan, Illinois, because his wife was "pushing" and being married in Illinois would enable them to wed more quickly than in Wisconsin. Recently he and his wife traveled to Acapulco for a belated honeymoon. None of his Milwaukee associates went to Acapulco with them.

b6
b7C

His wife has had a "bad" past, but no longer is involved in [redacted]. She has not nor has ever been engaged in gambling activities at any time.

b6
b7C

At this point in the interview SA BRANDT asked MOHN whether he was presently involved in gambling activities. MOHN did not deny that he is a sports better or bookmaker. MOHN stated that he plays gin rummy rather well, but that he has not done so in the past year. He is associated with the various members of the Milwaukee gambling community, but he is attempting to disassociate himself from that group. He indicated and later reiterated that gambling in Milwaukee is strictly, "small time".

He is good friends with FRANK "HOGAN" SANSONE and SIDNEY BRODSON. On May 1, 1961, HOGAN gave a party for [redacted] at FRANK BALISTRERI's "Ad Lib" club. The party was a going away party for [redacted] who is going to [redacted] to work for [redacted]. Among those present at the party were [redacted] and [redacted] was [redacted].

b6
b7C

SIDNEY BRODSON has returned to Milwaukee, but does not know the extent of BRODSON's activities.

MOHN intimated that "HOGAN" SANSONE is doing a big volume gambling business, but he refused to furnish specific information or details and he did not directly admit that "HOGAN" is involved in gambling.

He is familiar with the gambling operation known as "The Office", but he does not know who is running The Office or where it is located. For the past three years "The Office" has been "bust" and has taken as long as three months to pay its gambling debts. "Sheriff" CEPALU, who allegedly was responsible for managing "The Office" in the past, is having domestic difficulties and to the best of NORN's knowledge is no longer associated with "The Office".

NORN denied the existence of a sports line coming into Milwaukee from out of state and stated that no Milwaukee gamblers make their own line. He stated that the gambling community is of the opinion that the "Feds" have the best^N and he reiterated that he knows of no interstate gambling violations.

The Martindale-Hubbell Law Directory, 1972 edition, reveals one SIDNEY A. BRODSON is a practicing attorney, Milwaukee, Wisconsin, business address 836 North 12th Street, Milwaukee. He was born in 1908, is a graduate of the University of Wisconsin, and was admitted to the Wisconsin Bar in 1931.

LA 165-4789

By communication dated 7/28/72, the Boston Division made available identifying data concerning SIDNEY A. BRODSO, subject of Milwaukee files 162-161 and 165-128, and RAPHAEL WAX, aka Ray Wax, Boston file 165-867.

Report of SA ALEXANDER P. LE GRAND at Milwaukee dated 11/12/64 relating to SIDNEY A. BRODSO, aka, reveals BRODSO was a witness in the Kefauver Committee Hearings in 1951 on gambling activity and handicapped sporting events. He reportedly was a close gambling associate of [redacted]

[redacted] FRANK ROSENTHAL, Multiple Sports News Service, Miami, Florida, JOHN JOSEPH MORN, agent and "beard" of BRODSO, [redacted] and [redacted]

b6
b7C

[redacted] During the Kefauver Committee investigation into gambling in 1951, the "Milwaukee Journal" dated 3/25/51 reported testimony of BRODSO disclosing he bet between $500,000 and $1,000,000 a year and accumulated a net worth of $250,000 in seven years. At that time, he resided at 2420 East Stratford Court, Shorewood, Wisconsin, telephone number ED 2-3256, and was a practicing attorney at 836 North 12th Street, Room 108, telephone number 272-4624, in the company of JOHN JOSEPH MORN and [redacted]

RAPHAEL WAX, aka Ray Wax, was indicted on 4/7/71 in Federal Grand Jury, Boston, for violation of ITWI Statutes with CARMELLO COCO of East Boston, Massachusetts, and [redacted]

[redacted] as a result of USDC BS #3. During the arrest of WAX on 4/8/71 at Pawtucket, Rhode Island, by Bureau Agents, he had in his possession coded telephone numbers under the name JIM, which, when decoded, were found to be listed to SIDNEY and [redacted] 2420 East Stratford Court, Milwaukee, Wisconsin.
